

Bemidji State University

NRSB 3202: Child/Adolescent Health

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Credits: 5

Lecture Hours/Week: .

Lab Hours/Week: .

OJT Hours/Week: .

Prerequisites: None

Corequisites: None

MnTC Goals: None

Focuses on health and illness concerns experienced by infants, children, and adolescents. Studies nursing care management approaches and health care resources supportive of promotion, attainment, and preservation of health and amelioration of suffering. Includes nutritional and pharmacological dimensions of nursing practice. Prerequisites: 4-year track enrollee, NRSB 2000, NRSB 2004, NRSB 2203, NRSB 2204, and NRSB 3120; Corequisites: NRSB 3201 and NRSB 3203.

B. COURSE EFFECTIVE DATES: 08/27/2007 - 08/23/2015

C. OUTLINE OF MAJOR CONTENT AREAS

None

D. LEARNING OUTCOMES (General)

None

E. Minnesota Transfer Curriculum Goal Area(s) and Competencies

None

F. LEARNER OUTCOMES ASSESSMENT

As noted on course syllabus

G. SPECIAL INFORMATION

None noted