

Minnesota State University Moorhead

AMCS 332: Indians of the Southwest

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Credits: 3

Lecture Hours/Week: 3

Lab Hours/Week: 0

OJT Hours/Week: .

Prerequisites: None

Corequisites: None

MnTC Goals: None

Indians of the Southwest is a course which focuses on the cultures of American Indian Peoples of Arizona, New Mexico and adjacent areas. It introduces students to the ways of life of selected communities through oral tradition, beliefs, intercultural contacts and arts.

B. COURSE EFFECTIVE DATES: 12/16/2004 - 12/11/2013

C. OUTLINE OF MAJOR CONTENT AREAS

None

D. LEARNING OUTCOMES (General)

None

E. Minnesota Transfer Curriculum Goal Area(s) and Competencies

None

F. LEARNER OUTCOMES ASSESSMENT

As noted on course syllabus

G. SPECIAL INFORMATION

None noted