ENGL 356: African American Literature

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Credits: 3

Lecture Hours/Week: 3

Lab Hours/Week: .

OJT Hours/Week: .

Prerequisites:

ENGL 101 - Composition and Literature I

Corequisites: None

MnTC Goals: None

The focus of the course is the African-American literary tradition. This survey course covers African-American writing from slave narratives to the present. Because of the historical sweep of the course, students will read broadly, rather than intensively--with any one writer. Students will also be instructed in the historical background for the writings.
