This course will introduce students to a theoretical framework of anti-racism and its applications. Students will explore the cultural and social aspects of racism and learn ways of dismantling racism as a form of oppression on both individual and systemic levels. In addition, students will use concepts such as power and privilege, prejudice, discrimination, oppression, institutional transformation and change, anti-racist organizing, and social justice for personal and institutional analysis. Students will be required to attend a full day anti-racism training. Course content will expand upon knowledge gained in this training. MnTC Goal 7.
