A. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Credits: 3

Lecture Hours/Week: 3

Lab Hours/Week: .

OJT Hours/Week: .

Prerequisites: None

Corequisites: None

MnTC Goals: None

This course expands on students' existing skills of listening and speaking together in one course. Students develop the interpersonal communication skills necessary to interact with others in a wider range of settings and over a wider range of topics than those covered in ELP 102. In addition to conducting more extensive social interactions with peers, students will learn to conduct more extensive transactions with strangers and interact appropriately with professors and supervisors. Must earn grade of B or higher in ELP 102 and get instructor permission to enroll for this course OR get acceptable score on placement test and instructor permission.
