MnTC Goals: Goal 01 - Communication, Goal 09 - Ethical/Civic Resp

This introductory course is intended to develop critical and analytical skills for understanding mass media; for recognizing messages, making deliberate choices about them, and evaluating the effects of these messages in both an individual and societal context. Students will examine the history, evolution, and societal impact of a wide variety of media, including print, film, and social media and will develop skills to make informed, ethical evaluations of the mediated messages they receive.

B. COURSE EFFECTIVE DATES: 08/27/2012 - Present

C. OUTLINE OF MAJOR CONTENT AREAS

1. Topics covered: the communication process of mass media and how technological, social, political, and economic trends influence how messages are sent and received. The history, development, and current status of the various forms of mass media may be discussed, including print (books, newspapers, and magazines), audio (radio, phone), television, film, and the Internet. The course will also consider a number of political, legal, and ethical issues in areas such as public relations, advertising, consumer protection, regulation, privacy, and copyright.

D. LEARNING OUTCOMES (General)

1. Explain the process of mediated communication and one's personal use of it and compare/contrast this process to that of non-mediated forms of communication. (MnTC 1a, d, f, g, ELOs 1, 2)
2. Analyze/assess the various types of mediated communication and become more cognizant of daily choices and the connection between different forms of mediated communication and communicative behavior. (MnTC 1c, 2b, d, ELOs 3, 4)
3. Explore the historical, societal, and intercultural impact of different forms of mediated communication. (MnTC 1c, 2a, 9b, c, d, ELOs 1, 2)
4. Identify and develop strategies to become more ethical consumers of mediated communication both socially and professionally. (MnTC 1e, f, 9a, e, ELOs 3, 4)
5. Identify and assess the social and political regulation of various forms of mediated communication and connect these ideas to current and developing trends and issues in the use of mediated communication. (MnTC 2b, c, d, 9c, d, e, ELOs 1, 2)
6. Identify and explain the role of mediated communication in communicating, guiding, and influencing personal, social, and political agendas. (MnTC 1d, 2b, c, d, 9b, c, d ELOs 1, 3)
7. Develop skills to become more conscious and ethical consumers and creators of mediated communication, including but not limited to effective online self-presentation, selection of media appropriate to message content, and identification of bias in mediated messages. (MnTC 1a, d, f, g, 9a, e, ELOs 2, 3)
