

Minnesota State University Moorhead

BIOL 126: Human Anatomy and Physiology II

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION

Credits: 3

Lecture Hours/Week: 2

Lab Hours/Week: 1

OJT Hours/Week: .

Prerequisites: None

Corequisites: None

MnTC Goals: None

The second semester of an introductory lecture and laboratory sequence in human anatomy and physiology for nursing students. The course examines the fundamental concepts of human structure and function including covering muscular, cardiovascular, lymphatic, respiratory, digestive, urinary, endocrine, and reproductive systems.

B. COURSE EFFECTIVE DATES: 02/12/2005 - 06/01/2015

C. OUTLINE OF MAJOR CONTENT AREAS

None

D. LEARNING OUTCOMES (General)

None

E. Minnesota Transfer Curriculum Goal Area(s) and Competencies

None

F. LEARNER OUTCOMES ASSESSMENT

As noted on course syllabus

G. SPECIAL INFORMATION

None noted